Product Description:

Lavandula angustifolia

Country of Origin: England

Home grown organically by us, on our farm here in the UK

Aroma: A unique, rich sweet aroma that is full of life

This certified organic oil has been grown, distilled & bottled at Inglenook Farm. The spectacular crop is harvested in July and distilled fresh the same day. The fresh crop is distilled in small quantities for a relatively short period of time, and the resulting oil filtered to ensure purity.
